FUNDS AND TRUST PROPERTY HELD BY FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS

2. Duties of persons dealing with funds of, and with trust property controlled by, financial institutions

A director, member, partner, official, employee or agent of a financial institution or of a nominee company who invests, holds, keeps in safe custody, controls, administers or alienates any funds of the financial institution or any trust property-

- (a) must, with regard to such funds, observe the utmost good faith and exercise proper care and diligence;
- (b) must, with regard to the trust property and the terms of the instrument or agreement by which the trust or agency in question has been created, observe the utmost good faith and exercise the care and diligence required of a trustee in the exercise or discharge of his or her powers and duties; and
- (c) may not alienate, invest, pledge, hypothecate or otherwise encumber or make use of the funds or trust property or furnish any guarantee in a manner calculated to gain directly or indirectly any improper advantage for himself or herself or for any other person to the prejudice of the financial institution or principal concerned.

3. Declaration of interest

- (1) A director, member, partner, official, employee or agent of a financial institution or of a nominee company who takes part in a decision to invest any of the funds of the financial institution or any trust property in a company or other undertaking in which he or she has a direct or indirect financial interest, must declare that interest in writing to the board of management or other governing body of the financial institution or nominee company, indicating the nature and extent of such interest, before such decision is made.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), ‘invest’ includes-
 - (a) the purchase of shares in a company, or of an interest in a close corporation or partnership;
 - (b) the granting of a secured or unsecured loan.

- (3) A declaration of interest made in terms of subsection (1) must be recorded in the minutes of the meeting of the board or governing body at which the declaration is made or considered.

4. Investment of trust property

- (1) A director, member, partner, official, employee or agent of a financial institution which administers trust property under any instrument or agreement may not cause such trust property to be invested otherwise than in a manner directed in, or required by, such instrument or agreement.
- (2) In the absence of a direction or requirement referred to in subsection (1), a director, member, partner, official, employee or agent of a financial institution may not cause any trust property to be invested otherwise than in the name of-
- (a) the principal concerned;
 - (b) the financial institution in its capacity as administrator, trustee, curator or agent; or
 - (c) a nominee company.
- (3)
- (a) Despite subsections (1) and (2)-
 - (i) where the articles of association of a company prohibit the registration of its shares or debentures in the name of-
 - (aa) a trust;
 - (bb) a financial institution in its capacity as administrator, trustee or curator; or
 - (cc) any nominee; and
 - (ii) where such shares or debentures form part of trust property administered by a financial institution, those shares or debentures must be registered in the name of a director, member, partner or manager of that financial institution.
 - (b) The director, member, partner or manager must hold those shares or debentures in a fiduciary capacity on behalf of the principal concerned.
 - (c) Prior to the registration of any shares or debentures in the name of a director, member, partner or manager as contemplated in paragraph (a), the financial institution concerned must furnish security to the satisfaction of the Master of the High Court, if such security has not already been furnished in terms of the Trust Property Control Act, 1988 (Act No. 57 of 1988).

- (4) A financial institution must keep trust property separate from assets belonging to that institution, and must in its books of account clearly indicate the trust property as being property belonging to a specified principal.
- (5) Despite anything to the contrary in any law or the common law, trust property invested, held, kept in safe custody, controlled or administered by a financial institution or a nominee company under no circumstances forms part of the assets or funds of the financial institution or such nominee company.

\(Section 4\(5\): Decided Cases\)

- (6) This section also applies in a case where a financial institution invests, holds, keeps in safe custody, controls, administers or alienates trust property under any instrument or agreement jointly with another person.

CHAPTER 2

ENFORCEMENT

5. Appointment of curator

\(Section 5: Decided cases\)

- (1) The registrar may, on good cause shown, apply to a division of the High Court having jurisdiction for the appointment of a curator to take control of, and to manage the whole or any part of, the business of an institution.

\(Section 5\(1\): Decided Cases\)

- (2) Upon an application in terms of subsection (1) the court may-
 - (a) provisionally appoint a curator to take control of, and to manage the whole or any part of, the business of the institution on such conditions and for such a period as the court deems fit; and
 - (b) simultaneously grant a rule nisi calling upon the institution and other interested parties to show cause on a day mentioned in the rule why the appointment of the curator should not be confirmed.
- (3) On application by the institution the court may anticipate the return day if not less than 48 hours' notice of such application has been given to the registrar.
- (4) If at the hearing pursuant to the rule nisi the court is satisfied that it is desirable to do so, it may confirm the appointment of the curator.
- (5) The court may make an order with regard to-
 - (a) the suspension of legal proceedings against the institution for the duration of the curatorship;
 - (b) the powers and duties of the curator;

- (c) the remuneration of a curator appointed provisionally under subsection (2)(a) or finally under subsection (4);
(Section 5\(5\)\(c\): Decided Cases)
 - (d) the costs relating to any application made by the registrar under subsection (1);
 - (e) the costs incurred by the registrar in respect of an inspection of the affairs of the institution concerned in terms of the Inspection of Financial Institutions Act, 1998 (Act No. 80 of 1998); or
 - (f) any other matter which the court deems necessary.
- (6) The curator acts under the control of the registrar who made the application under subsection (1), and may apply to that registrar for instructions with regard to any matter arising out of, or in connection with, the control and management of the business of the institution.
- (7) The curator must furnish the registrar of the institution concerned with such information concerning the affairs of that institution as the registrar may require.
- (8)
- (a) Any person, on good cause shown, may make application to the court to set aside or alter any decision made, or any action taken, by the curator or the registrar with regard to any matter arising out of, or in connection with, the control and management of the business of an institution which has been placed under curatorship.
 - (b) A person who makes application contemplated in paragraph (a) must give notice of not less than 48 hours of such application to the registrar or the curator, as the case may be, and such registrar or curator is entitled to be heard at such application.
- (9) The court may, on good cause shown, cancel the appointment of the curator at any time.

6. Powers of registrar

- (1) The registrar may institute proceedings in the High Court having jurisdiction in order to-
- (a) discharge any duty or responsibility imposed on the registrar in terms of any law;
 - (b) compel any institution to comply with any law or to cease contravening a law;
 - (c) compel any institution to comply with a lawful request, directive or instruction made, issued or given by the registrar under a law; or

- (d) obtain a declaratory order on any point of law relating to any law or to the business of an institution.
- (2) For the purpose of ensuring compliance with a law, or if the registrar has reason to believe that an institution is contravening or failing to comply with, or has contravened or failed to comply with, any provision of a law, the registrar may-
- (a) by notice direct that institution to-
 - (i) furnish the registrar within a specified period with any specified information or documents in the possession or under the control of that institution and which relate to the matter of such contravention or failure;
 - (ii) appear before the registrar at a specified time and place for questioning by the registrar in connection with such matter; or
 - (iii) make arrangements to the satisfaction of the registrar for the discharge of all or any part of that institution's obligations in terms of such law;
 - (b) if it appears that prejudice has occurred or might occur as a result of such contravention or failure to comply, apply to a court having jurisdiction for an order restraining such institution from continuing business or dealing with trust property pending an application to court by the registrar as contemplated in section 5, or pending the exercising of such other legal remedy as may be available to the registrar.
- (3)
- (a) If the registrar has reason to believe that a person has contravened a law, or has failed to comply with a request, directive or instruction made, issued or given by the registrar under such law, the registrar may publish a statement to that effect in such manner as the registrar considers appropriate.
 - (b) Before publishing a statement, the registrar must give the person concerned a notice warning it of the proposed publication of such statement, the reason therefor and the proposed date of publication.
 - (c) The person concerned may before the proposed date of publication of the statement make representations to the registrar concerning the proposed action.
 - (d) If the registrar thereafter decides to publish the statement, the registrar must, without delay, give the person concerned a notice which sets out the terms of the statement to be published.

[Subs. (4) deleted by s. 42 of Act 22/2008]

- (5) The registrar may take any reasonable steps, including the issue of an instruction to carry out an inspection in terms of the Inspection of Financial Institutions Act, 1998, to ensure that an institution which is subject to an order of court made in terms of subsection (1) or (2) is complying with that order.

6A. Referral to enforcement committee

- (1)
- (a) Despite any provision in a law, if a registrar is of the opinion that a person is contravening a provision of a law in respect of which the registrar is not authorised to impose an administrative sanction, the registrar may refer the alleged contravention to the enforcement committee.
- (b) A registrar authorised to impose sanctions under the Financial Intelligence Centre Act, 2001 (Act No. 38 of 2001), must refer an alleged contravention under the Financial Intelligence Centre Act, 2001, to the enforcement committee.
- (2) The directorate may, after an investigation carried out by the directorate under Chapter VIII of the Securities Services Act 2004, refer an alleged contravention to the enforcement committee.

[S. 6A inserted by s. 43 of Act 22/2008]

6B. Enforcement committee proceedings

- (1) A referral under section 6A(1) or (2) must be accompanied by-
- (a) a notice setting out the details and nature of the alleged contravention and the administrative sanction that in the opinion of the applicant, should be imposed; and
- (b) an affidavit by or on behalf of the applicant setting out the facts and documents supporting the notice.
- (2) The applicant must on referral of a matter under section 6A(1) or (2)-
- (a) cause a copy of the notice and affidavit referred to in subsection (1) to be delivered to the respondent's residential address, registered office or principal place of business; and
- (b) afford the respondent the opportunity to submit an answering affidavit within 30 days of delivery of the notice and affidavit to the respondent.
- (3) Any answering affidavit by or on behalf of the respondent must-
- (a) be filed by the respondent with the enforcement committee and a copy thereof must be delivered to the applicant;
- (b) state which of the allegations of the applicant are admitted and which are denied and if denied the respondent's version of the relevant facts.

- (4) Within 30 days of delivery to the applicant of the respondent's answering affidavit, the applicant may deliver a replying affidavit in the manner stated in subsection (2)(a) or at another address elected by the respondent for such service.
- (5) No further affidavits may be filed without the permission of the enforcement committee.
- (6) The applicant that referred a matter may at any time withdraw a referral under subsection (1) or (2) on notice to the enforcement committee and the respondent.
- (7)
 - (a) The applicant may prior to the referral of a matter to the enforcement committee or during or after the enforcement committee proceedings enter into a written settlement agreement with the respondent.
 - (b) The agreement must be filed with the chairperson of the enforcement committee to be made an order of the enforcement committee, as contemplated in section 6D\(2\).

[S. 6B inserted by s. 43 of Act 22/2008]

6C. Hearing by enforcement committee

- (1) The enforcement committee must within 30 days of the expiry of the time periods for the filing of affidavits referred to in section 6B\(2\), (3) (4) and (5) inform the applicant and respondent of the date, time and place of the hearing.
- (2) The applicant and respondent must not be given less than 30 days notice of the date of the hearing.
- (3) Where a matter cannot properly be decided on affidavit, the enforcement committee may order any person to appear before the panel to be examined and cross-examined as a witness and to produce a document specified in the summons.
- (4) Subject to this section the chairperson of the panel designated to hear a matter determines the procedure for the hearing.
- (5) Without derogating from the generality of subsection (4), the chairperson may-
 - (a) in an urgent matter order that such matter be disposed of at such time, in such manner and in accordance with such procedure as the chairperson deems appropriate;
 - (b) with the consent of the parties, rule that a matter may be presented to the enforcement committee by way of a stated case abbreviated pleadings or any other procedure which will expedite the matter;
 - (c) rule on the discovery and inspection of documents;

- (d) require heads of argument to be filed by the parties;
- (e) allow legal representation to the parties; or
- (f) order that the issues be argued before the enforcement committee.

[S. 6C inserted by s. 43 of Act 22/2008]

6D. Determination by enforcement committee

- (1) The enforcement committee must determine whether the respondent has contravened a law.
- (2) If the enforcement committee is satisfied that there was a contravention as contemplated in subsection (1) the enforcement committee may, despite the provisions of any law, impose any one or more of the following administrative sanctions:
 - (a) Impose a penalty by ordering the respondent to pay a sum of money to the board;
 - (b)
 - (i) order the respondent other than a respondent referred to in subparagraph (ii), to pay to any person who suffered patrimonial loss or damage as a result of the contravention of a law a compensatory amount determined by the enforcement committee to make good the patrimonial loss or damage so suffered; or
 - (ii) if the respondent contravened section 73 of the Securities Services Act, 2004, order the respondent to pay to the board a compensatory amount calculated in accordance with section 77\(1\), \(2\), \(3\) or \(4\) of that Act.
- (3) When determining an appropriate administrative sanction the enforcement committee may have regard to the following factors:
 - (a) The nature, duration, seriousness and extent of the contravention;
 - (b) any loss or damage suffered by any person as a result of the contravention;
 - (c) the extent of the profit derived or loss avoided by the respondent from the contravention;
 - (d) the impact which the respondent's conduct may have on the relevant sector of the financial services industry;
 - (e) whether the respondent has previously failed to comply with a fiduciary duty or law;
 - (f) any previous fine imposed or compensation paid for the contravention based on the same set of facts;

- (g) the deterrent effect of the administrative sanction;
 - (h) the degree to which the respondent co-operated with the applicant and the enforcement committee; and
 - (i) any other factor including mitigating factors submitted by the respondent that the enforcement committee considers to be relevant.
- (4)
- (a) A determination of a panel on a matter assigned to it must be in writing and must state the reasons for the determination.
 - (b) The decision of a majority of the members of a panel is a determination of the enforcement committee.
- (5) The enforcement committee may as part of a determination make such order as to costs as it may deem suitable and fair, including the cost of constituting the enforcement committee panel and all expenses reasonably incurred by the applicant in investigating the alleged non-compliance and referring the matter to the enforcement committee.

[S. 6D inserted by s. 43 of Act 22/2008]

6E. Notification and enforcement of determination

- (1) As soon as the enforcement committee has issued a determination it must-
- (a) cause a copy of the determination to be delivered to the applicant and the respondent at the address stated in section 6B\(4\);
 - (b) in a simultaneous written notice advise the respondent-
 - (i) to comply with the administrative sanction imposed by the enforcement committee within the period specified in the notice;
 - (ii) of the possibility of an appeal in terms of section 6F; and
 - (iii) that failure by the respondent to comply with the notice in terms of this subsection will result in the process contemplated in subsection (2).
- (2) A determination by the enforcement committee has legal force as if made by the High Court and if the respondent fails to comply with the notice in terms of subsection (1)(b) and an appeal has not been noted, the applicant may forthwith file with the registrar of a competent court a certified copy of the notice and the determination, and the determination thereupon has the effect of a civil judgment and may be enforced as if lawfully given in that court in favour of the applicant.

6F. Appeal against determination

- (1) Subject to the appeal proceedings under the Financial Intelligence Centre Act, 2001, and subsection (2), a determination of the enforcement committee may be taken on appeal to the High Court as if the determination were a decision of a magistrate in a civil matter.
- (2) The launching of appeal proceedings does not suspend the operation or execution of a determination, unless the chairperson of the enforcement committee which dealt with the matter directs otherwise.

[S. 6F inserted by s. 43 of Act 22/2008]

6G. Disclosure of determination

- (1) A determination of the enforcement committee must be made public by the registrar or the directorate in a manner deemed appropriate by him or her.
- (2) Subsection (1) equally applies to any judgment on appeal or a settlement agreement made an order in terms of section 6B\(7\)\(b\).

[S. 6G inserted by s. 43 of Act 22/2008]

6H. Utilisation of administrative sanction

- (1) Any payment received by the board pursuant to an administrative sanction imposed under section 6D\(2\)\(a\) must, subject to subsection (2), exclusively be utilised for purposes of consumer education or the protection of the public.
- (2) A compensatory amount received pursuant to an order under section 6D\(2\)\(b\)\(ii\) must be dealt with in accordance with section 77\(7\), (8) and (9) of the Securities Services Act, 2004.

[S. 6H inserted by s. 43 of Act 22/2008]

6I. Saving of rights

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), no provision of this Act, whether it relates to civil or criminal matters, and no act performed under any such provision, may be construed as limiting any right of a person affected by the contravention to seek appropriate legal redress in terms of the common law or any other statutory law.
- (2) If a court assesses the penalty to be imposed on a person convicted of an offence in terms of any law, the court must take into account any administrative sanction imposed in respect of the same set of facts.
- (3) An administrative sanction imposed by the enforcement committee does not constitute a previous conviction as contemplated in chapter 27 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977 (Act No. 51 of 1977).

[S. 6I inserted by s. 43 of Act 22/2008]

7. Declaration of certain practices as irregular or undesirable

- (1) The registrar may, by notice in the Gazette, declare a specific practice or method of conducting business an 'irregular or undesirable practice' or an 'undesirable method of conducting business' for a specific category or categories of financial institutions, or for all such institutions.
- (2) The registrar may not issue a declaration referred to in subsection (1) unless the registrar-
 - (a) has invited interested persons to make written representations concerning the intended declaration so as to reach him or her within 21 days before the proposed date of publication of that notice; and
 - (b) has consulted with any advisory committee or board established in respect of the supervision, regulation and control of the financial institutions concerned.
- (3) A financial institution may not, on or after the date of the notice referred to in subsection (1), carry on the relevant business practice or method of conducting business.
- (4) The registrar may, by notice in the Gazette direct a financial institution which carries on the relevant business practice or method of conducting business on or after the date of the notice referred to in subsection (1), to rectify or repair to the satisfaction of the registrar anything which was caused by, or arose out of, that business practice or method of conducting business: Provided that the Registrar may not make an order contemplated in section 6D\(2\)\(b\).
[Subs. (4) substituted by s. 44 of Act 22/2008]
- (5) A financial institution which is directed to rectify or repair anything in terms of subsection (4), must do so within 60 days after the financial institution is so directed.
[Subs. (5) substituted by s. 44 of Act 22/2008]

8. Restriction on powers of registrar

Despite any other provision of this Act, the registrar may not act under section 5, 6, or 7 in respect of a stock exchange, financial exchange, member or stock-broker referred to in paragraph (a)(v) and (vi) of the definition of 'financial institution' in section 1 of the Financial Services Board Act, 1990, unless the registrar-

- (a) has consulted with the committee or executive committee of the stock exchange or financial exchange in question; and
- (b) is satisfied that no other adequate remedy is available.

9. Records and entries in books of account admissible in evidence

In any proceedings conducted in terms of this Act, the records and books of account of an institution, a nominee company or a trust administered by such institution are admissible as prima facie evidence of the matters, transactions and accounts recorded therein, if supported by an affidavit by a person who alleges in that affidavit that person-

- (a)
 - (i) the person is a director, member, partner, official, employee or agent of such institution, nominee company or trust; or
 - (ii) the person is an inspector appointed under the Inspection of Financial Institutions Act, 1998 (Act No.80 of 1998), section 11 or 12 of the South African Reserve Bank Act, 1989 (Act No. 90 of 1989), section 6 of the Banks Act, 1990 (Act No. 94 of 1990), or section 4 of the Mutual Banks Act, 1993 (Act No. 124 of 1993); and
- (b) such records or books of account are or have been the ordinary records and books of account of that institution, company or trust.

10. Offences

- (1) A person who contravenes or fails to comply with any provision of this Act is guilty of an offence and on conviction liable to a fine or imprisonment for a period not exceeding 15 years.
- (2) A court may, in addition to any penalty it may impose in terms of subsection (1), order that such person-
 - (a) pay the institution or principal concerned any profit he or she made; and
 - (b) compensate the institution or principal concerned for any damage suffered, as a result of the contravention or failure.
- (3) A court may, in addition to any penalty imposed in terms of subsection (1) and an order made in terms of subsection (2), order that such person may not serve as a director, member, partner or manager of any financial institution for such period as the court may deem fit.

11. Repeal of laws

The laws mentioned in the Schedule are hereby repealed to the extent set out in the third column of the Schedule, subject to the provisions of section 13.

12. Status of footnote

- (1) The footnote in section 1 has been inserted for ease of reference to the definition of 'financial institution' in section 1 of the Financial Services Board Act, 1990 (Act No. 97 of 1990).
- (2) The footnote is not part of this Act and does not have the force of law.

13. Transitional provision

Anything done or deemed to have been done under any provision of a law repealed by section 11 and which could be done under a provision of this Act, is deemed to have been done under the last-mentioned provision.

14. Short title

This Act is called the Financial Institutions (Protection of Funds) Act, 2001.
