\(Section 2: Decided cases\)

2. Establishment of board

There is hereby established a juristic person to be known as the Financial Services Board.

3. Functions of board

The functions of the board are –

\(Section 3\(a\): Decided cases\)

- (a) to supervise and enforce compliance with laws regulating financial institutions and the provision of financial services;

[Para. (a) substituted by s. 20 of Act 22/2008]

- (b) to advise the Minister on matters concerning financial institutions and financial services, either of its own accord or at the request of the Minister; and

- (c) to promote programmes and initiatives by financial institutions and bodies representing the financial services industry to inform and educate users and potential users of financial products and services.

[S. 3 substituted by s. 2 of Act 12/2000]

(Commencement date of s. 3: 1 April 1991)

4. Constitution of board

- (1) The board shall be governed by so many members as the Minister may deem necessary and appoint, with due regard to the interests of the users of financial services and the suppliers of financial services, including financial intermediaries, and the public interest.

- (2) The Minister may appoint an alternate member for every member of the board.

- (3) The Minister shall appoint a member of the board as the chairperson and another member as the deputy chairperson.

- (4) If the chairperson is absent or is for any reason unable to act as chairperson the deputy chairperson shall perform the functions of the chairperson.

[S. 4 substituted by s. 3 of Act 12/2000]

5. Persons disqualified from being members of board

No person shall be appointed as a member or an alternate member of the board -

- (a) unless he is a citizen of, and permanently resident in, the Republic;

- (b) if, in the opinion of the Minister, he or she is actually engaged in the business of a financial institution or actually engaged in the rendering of a financial service:
Provided that the Minister may, in consultation with the recognised association or organisation of the relevant financial institution or financial service in which such person is actually engaged, appoint a person who would otherwise be disqualified in terms of this paragraph from being a member of the board;
[Para. (b) substituted by s. 68 of Act 104/93 and s. 4 of Act 12/2000]
- (c) if he is an unrehabilitated insolvent;
- (d) if he or she has at any time been convicted (whether in the Republic or elsewhere) of theft, fraud, forgery or uttering a forged document, perjury, any offence under the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1958 (Act No. 6 of 1958), the Corruption Act, 1992 (Act No. 94 of 1992), Part 1 to 4, or section 17, 20 or 21 (in so far as it relates to the aforementioned offences) of Chapter 2 of the Prevention and Combating of Corrupt Activities Act, 2004, or any offence involving dishonesty, and has been sentenced therefor to imprisonment without the option of a fine or to a fine exceeding R100; or [Para. (d) substituted by s. 36 of Act 12/2004]
- (e) if he is of unsound mind.

6. Vacating of office by members of board

- (1) A member or alternate member of the board shall vacate his office -
 - (a) if he becomes subject to a disqualification contemplated in section 5; or
 - (b) if, in the case of a member, he has been absent for more than two consecutive meetings of the board without leave of the chairman or if, in the case of an alternate member, he has been so absent during the absence, or vacancy in the office, of the member for whom he has been appointed as alternate member.
- (2) The Minister may at any time terminate the membership of any member or alternate member of the board if in the opinion of the Minister sufficient reasons exist therefor.
[Subs. (2) substituted by s. 5 of Act 12/2000]

7. Term of office of members of board, and filling of vacancies

- (1) A member or alternate member of the board shall hold office, subject to the provisions of section 6, for such period, not exceeding three years, as the Minister may determine at the time of his or her appointment: Provided that -
 - (a) the term of office of not more than 50 per cent of the members or alternate members of the board shall expire within any calendar year; and
 - (b) if at the expiry of the term of office of a member or alternate member of the board a successor has not been appointed as provided for in this subsection, such member or alternate member shall continue in office for a further period not exceeding six months until reappointed or until a successor is appointed, whichever occurs first.

[Subs. (1) substituted by s. 6 of Act 12/2000]

- (2) If a member or an alternate member of the board for any reason vacates his or her office, the Minister may appoint a person to act in the place of such member or alternate member for the unexpired period of his or her term of office.

[Subs. (2) substituted by s. 21 of Act 22/2008]

- (3) Any person whose term of office as a member or an alternate member of the board has expired, shall be eligible for reappointment.

8. Meetings and decisions of board

- (1) The first meeting of the board shall be held at a time and place determined by the chairman, and thereafter the board shall meet at such times and places as the board may from time to time determine.
- (2) The chairman may at any time convene an extraordinary meeting of the board to be held at a time and place determined by him.
- (3) The quorum for a meeting of the board shall be a majority of its members.
- (4) If both the chairman and the deputy chairman are absent from any meeting of the board, the members present shall from among themselves elect a person to preside at such meeting.
- (5) The decision of a majority of the members present at a meeting of the board shall constitute a decision of the board, and in the event of an equality of votes on any matter the person presiding at the meeting in question shall have a casting vote in addition to his deliberative vote.
- (6) No decision taken by or act performed under the authority of the board, shall be invalid by reason only of a casual vacancy on the board or of the fact that any person not entitled to sit as a member of the board sat as such a member at the time when the decision was taken or the act was authorized, if the decision was taken or the act was authorized by the majority of the members of the board who were present at the time and entitled to sit as members.
- (7) For the purposes of this section “member” shall include an alternate member present at a particular meeting of the board during the absence, or vacancy in the office, of the member for whom he has been appointed as alternate member.

9. Executive

(Section 9(1): Decided cases)

- (1) There shall be an executive, which shall, during the periods between meetings of the board, perform the functions of the board in accordance with the policy and instructions of the board.

(Section 9(2): Decided cases)

- (2) The executive shall not be competent, except in so far as the board may otherwise direct, to set aside or vary a decision of the board.

\(Section 9\(3\): Decided cases\)

- (3) The board may set aside or vary any decision of the executive, except a decision in consequence of which a payment has been made or any other right has been granted to any person.
- (4) The executive shall consist of the executive officer, the deputy executive officers, the chief actuary and such other officers or employees of the board as the board may from time to time appoint to the executive, on such conditions as it deems fit.
[Subs. (4) substituted by s. 2 of Act 41/92 and s. 7 of Act 12/2000]
- (5) The decision of a majority of the members of the executive shall constitute a decision of the executive, and in the event of an equality of votes the executive officer shall have a casting vote in addition to his deliberative vote.
[Subs. (5) substituted by s. 2 of Act 41/92]

10. Committees of board

- (1) The board may, subject to subsection (2), establish committees to assist it in the performance of its functions and it may at any time dissolve or reconstitute such committees.
 - (a) A committee consists of as many persons as the board considers necessary.
 - (b) The board may, subject to section 6B\(1\)\(a\) of the Financial Institutions (Protection of Funds) Act, 2001 (Act No. 28 of 2001), appoint any person, who would not be disqualified under section 5 from becoming a board member, as a member of a committee.
 - (c) A member of a committee is appointed on the terms and conditions as the board may determine.
- (3) The board must establish an enforcement committee in accordance with section 10A to be responsible for enforcing compliance with the laws regulating financial institutions and the provision of financial services.
- (4) The board may terminate the membership of a member of a committee if-
 - (a) the performance by the member of the powers and functions assigned to the member of that committee is unsatisfactory;
 - (b) the member is unable to perform the functions of the committee effectively;
 - (c) the member has failed to comply with or breached any applicable code of conduct; or

- (d) the conduct of the member negatively impacts on the integrity of the board or relevant committee.
- (5) If the board does not designate a chairperson for a committee, the committee may elect a chairperson from amongst its members.
- (6) The board must provide funding to its committees to enable them to perform their functions effectively.
- (7) The board shall not be absolved from responsibility for the performance of any functions entrusted to any committee in terms of this section.
[S. 10 amended by s. 8 of Act 12/2000 and substituted by s. 22 of Act 22/2008]

10A. Enforcement committee

- (1)
 - (a) The enforcement committee-
 - (i) must consist of sufficient persons with appropriate knowledge and experience so as to enable the committee to perform the functions entrusted to it by this Act or any other law: and
 - (ii) must include advocates or attorneys with at least ten years experience; and
 - (iii) may include a judge.
 - (b) The enforcement committee must be chaired by a person referred to in paragraphs (a)(ii) or (iii).
 - (c) The board must appoint the chairperson and as many deputy chairpersons as necessary from the members of the committee referred to in paragraph (a)(ii) or (iii).
- (2)
 - (a) The chairperson or deputy chairperson of the committee, with the assistance of employees of the board designated by the executive officer appointed in terms of section 13, is responsible for-
 - (i) managing the matters referred to the enforcement committee; and
 - (ii) assigning these matters to a panel composed of not less than three members of the enforcement committee, who are suitably qualified to decide on a particular matter.
 - (b) The chairperson of a panel must be the chairperson or a deputy chairperson of the enforcement committee and has a casting vote in the event of an equality of votes.

- (3) The board may at any time reconstitute the enforcement committee, but a reconstitution does not affect the composition of a panel referred to in subsection (2)(a)(ii) during the course of proceedings before that panel.
- (4) If before or during a hearing in which a member is participating, it becomes apparent that the member has an interest in a matter referred to the enforcement committee, the member must immediately disclose this interest to the panel designated to hear the matter and withdraw from any further involvement in that hearing.
- (5) If a member of a panel is unable to complete a hearing because of resignation, illness, death or withdrawal from a hearing, the chairperson or a deputy chairperson of the enforcement committee may-
 - (a) replace the member:
 - (b) despite subsection (2)(a)(ii), direct that the hearing of that matter must proceed before the remaining members of the panel; or
 - (c) terminate the proceedings before that panel and constitute another panel which may include any member of the original panel and direct that panel to conduct a new hearing.

[S. 10A inserted by s. 23 of Act 22/2008]

11. Remuneration of members of board and of committees

A member or an alternate member of the board or a member of any committee of the board who is not in the full-time employment of the State shall be paid such remuneration and allowances out of the funds of the board as the Minister may determine.

12. General powers of board

- (1) For the purposes of any investigation by the board in connection with the performance of its functions the Commissions Act, 1947 (Act No. 8 of 1947), shall apply to the board and witnesses and their evidence as if the board were a commission to which the said Act applied and the executive officer were the secretary of the board.
- (2) The board may call to its assistance such person or persons as it may deem necessary to assist in the performance of its functions.
- (3) The board may -
 - (a) hire, purchase or otherwise acquire such movable or immovable property as the board may deem necessary for the performance of its functions and may let, sell or otherwise dispose of property so purchased or acquired.
 - (b) in order to perform its functions, enter into an agreement with any person, including the State, a university, a research institution or any other government institution, for the performance of any specific act or function or the rendering of specific services;

- (c) insure itself against any loss, damage, risk or liability which it may suffer or incur;
- (d) borrow money by the issue of stock or in any other manner to a maximum amount approved by the Minister;
- (e) appoint officers and employees to assist it in the performance of its functions; and
- (f) in general do anything which is necessary or expedient to perform its functions.

(Commencement date of s. 12: 1 April 1991)

13. Staff of board

(1) The board shall in the performance of its functions be assisted by -

- (a) an executive officer, one or more deputy executive officers and a chief actuary appointed by the Minister after consultation with the board and who in that order of rank shall be the most senior officers of the board;

[Para. (a) substituted by s. 3 of Act 41/92]

(Commencement date of para. (a) (in so far as it pertains to the executive officer) : 1 October 1990)

- (b) persons appointed by the board; and
- (c) officers and employees placed at the disposal of the board under section 15 (3) (a) of the Public Service Act, 1994 (Proclamation No. 103 of 1994).

[Para. (c) substituted by s. 9 of Act 12/2000]

(2) The chief actuary shall -

- (a) be a full member of the Actuarial Society of South Africa;
- (b) be a South African citizen; and
- (c) have had at least two years' appropriate practical actuarial experience after passing the entrance examination recognized or conducted by the Actuarial Society of South Africa.

(Section 13(3): Decided cases)

(3) The executive officer shall, subject to supervision by the board, perform the functions entrusted to him by or in terms of this or any other Act.

(4) Any person in the employment of the board may with his consent and on the conditions determined by the board be seconded, either for a specific service or for a period determined by the board, to the service of the State or the service of any other state or any council, institution or body established by or under any law or to any other body or person: Provided that if any such person is so seconded, the terms and conditions on which he is employed by the board shall not be affected detrimentally by the secondment.

(Commencement date of s. 13: 1 April 1991)

14. Remuneration of staff of board

- (1) The board may pay to the persons in its employ, or provide them with, such remuneration, allowances, bonuses, subsidies, pension and other employment benefits as the board may, after having obtained such professional advice as it may deem fit, consider as being competitive in the open market but with due regard to section 18 (b).

[Subs. (1) substituted by s. 1 of Act 84/92 and s. 10 of Act 12/2000]

- (2) The board shall reimburse the State for any payment made by the State in terms of any contract of service applicable in respect of an officer or an employee referred to in section 13 (1) (c).

15. Acting executive officer

The Minister, after consultation with the board, may appoint a person to act as executive officer during-

- (a) a vacancy in the office of the executive officer, and the person so appointed will act until an executive officer is appointed in terms of section 13; or
- (b) any period when the executive officer is for any reason unable to perform the functions of the office.

[S. 15 repealed by s. 11 of Act 12/2000 and inserted by s. 24 of Act 22/2008]

15A. Levies

- (1) The board may impose by notice in the Gazette levies on financial institutions and may, subject to the provisions of this section, at any time in similar manner amend, substitute or withdraw any such notice.

- (a) Before imposing levies referred to in subsection (1), the board must publish the proposed levies in such manner as it considers appropriate in order to bring the proposed levies to the attention of the financial institutions in question and the users of financial services rendered by these institutions, together with a statement that representations about the proposed levies may be made to the board within a specified time.
- (b) Before imposing levies the board must have regard to any representations made in pursuance of the statement referred to in paragraph (a).
- (c) Paragraphs (a) and (b) do not apply where the board, with the approval of the Minister, is of the opinion that the delay involved in complying with those paragraphs would be prejudicial to the functions of the board in terms of section 3 (a) and (c).

[Subs. (1A) inserted by s. 12 of Act 12/2000]

- (a) The board shall in any such notice determine -
 - (i) the amounts of the levies or the bases or manners of calculation or determination of the amounts;
 - (ii) the periods in respect of which levies are imposed, the dates on which levies or the periods within which they are payable, and the manners of payment;
 - (iii) the rates of interest and manner of calculation of interest contemplated in subsection (3);
 - (iv) the manner in which applications for exemptions contemplated in subsection (4) shall be made; and
 - (v) the manner in which a notice contemplated in subsection (4) (b) (ii) shall be served.
- (b) The board may in any such notice -
 - (i) impose different levies referred to in subsection (1); and
 - (ii) determine different amounts, bases or manners of calculation or determination, periods, dates, manners of payment, rates of interest and manners of calculation of interest, manners of making application or of service referred to in paragraph (a), in respect of different financial institutions, different categories of financial institutions and different sub-categories of a specific type of financial institution.

- (a) A financial institution which is under such notice liable for payment of a levy, and which fails to pay the levy in full within the period for payment as determined in the notice or on the date so determined, shall, at the rate and calculated in the manner determined in the notice, pay interest on the balance of the levy outstanding and on the interest so payable but unpaid.
- (b) A levy imposed by any such notice, and interest owed in respect thereof, shall be deemed to be a debt due to the board and may be recovered by the board by way of judicial process in a competent court.

- (a) The board may upon the application of a financial institution, and if the board is of the opinion that there are sound reasons therefor, grant exemption to the financial institution from a provision of the notice to the extent and subject to the conditions determined by the board.

- (b) An exemption contemplated in paragraph (a) shall lapse when -
 - (i) the board on the ground of facts and information at its disposal finds that the financial institution concerned has contravened a provision of a condition imposed as contemplated in paragraph (a), or has failed to comply therewith, or has otherwise acted contrary to the exemption; and
 - (ii) the board has served a written notice to that effect in accordance with the provisions of a notice referred to in subsection (1) on the institution.
- (c) The board shall before taking a decision contemplated in paragraph (b) (i), grant the financial institution concerned the opportunity deemed fit by the board to be heard.

[Para. (c) substituted by s. 12 of Act 12/2000]
[S. 15A inserted by s. 2 of Act 84/92]

16. Funds of board

- (1) The funds of the board shall consist of -
 - (a)
[Para. (a) deleted by s. 4 of Act 41/92]

- (1)
- (a) No member or alternate member of the board, a member of a committee of the board, a member of the appeal board or a person referred to in section 13 may, subject to paragraph (b) and subsection (2), disclose to any other person any information obtained in the performance of functions under this Act, the Acts referred to in the definition of 'financial institution', the Inspection of Financial Institutions Act, 1998 (Act No. 80 of 1998), the Financial Institutions (Protection of Funds) Act, 2001 (Act No. 28 of 2001) or the Financial Intelligence Centre Act, 2001 (Act No. 38 of 2001).

- (b) Despite the provisions of paragraph (a), disclosure of information may be made-
 - (i) in the course of performing functions under any law;
 - (ii) for the purposes of legal proceedings;
 - (iii) when required to do so by a court; or
 - (iv) by the board, the executive officer or deputy executive officer if in their opinion, disclosure is in the public interest.
[Subs. (1) substituted by s. 26 of Act 22/2008]

\(Section 22\(2\): Decided cases\)

- (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), the executive officer may, unless he or she is of the opinion that any such disclosure or rendering of assistance will not be in the public interest, but subject to guidelines issued by the board -
 - (a) disclose to any foreign financial or investment services regulatory or supervisory authority, or any other regulatory or supervisory authority for financial or investment services in the Republic, including the Registrar of Medical Schemes and a self-regulatory body approved by the board, information relating to a particular financial or other institution or financial or other service or a particular individual who is or was involved in a particular financial institution or financial service, if the executive officer is of the opinion that such information will be of importance to the relevant regulatory or supervisory authority, Registrar of Medical Schemes or self-regulatory body; and
 - (b) disclose to any foreign financial or investment services regulatory or supervisory authority any information required in terms of any agreement, communiqué or memorandum of understanding concluded by the board or the executive officer with any such authority, and may render any assistance to such authority:

Provided that the board or the executive officer may impose conditions relating to the use that may be made of any information or assistance and the preservation of confidentiality in respect thereof.

[Subs. (2) added by s. 7 of Act 41/92 and substituted by s. 15 of Act 12/2000]
(Commencement date of s. 22: 1 April 1991)

23. Limitation of liability

No person shall be liable for any loss sustained by, or damage caused to any other person as a result of anything done or omitted by that person in the bona fide, but not grossly negligent, exercise of any power or the carrying out of any duty or the performance of any function under or in terms of this Act, the Acts referred to in the definition of “financial institution”, the Inspection of Financial Institutions Act, 1998 (Act No. 80 of 1998), or the Financial Institutions (Protection of Funds) Act, 2001 (Act No. 28 of 2001).

[S. 23 substituted by s. 16 of Act 12/2000 and s. 27 of Act 22/2008]

24. Restriction on use of name or description implying connection with board

No person shall apply to any company, body, firm, business or undertaking a name or description signifying or implying some connection between such company, body, firm, business or undertaking and the board unless the person -

- (a) has been authorised by the board to do so; and;
- (b) complies with the conditions determined by the board.

[S. 24 substituted by s. 17 of Act 12/2000]

25. Liquidation

- (1) The board shall not be placed in liquidation except by Act of Parliament.
- (2) In the event of the liquidation of the board, the surplus assets of the board (if any) shall accrue to the State.

\(Section 26: Decided cases\)

26. Appeal against decision of decision-maker

- (1) A person who is aggrieved by a decision of a decision-maker may, subject to the provisions of another law, appeal against that decision to the appeal board in accordance with the provisions of this Act or such other law.
- (2) An appeal must be lodged within 30 days of the person becoming aware of, or ought to have become aware of a decision, in the manner and on payment of the fees prescribed by the Minister.
- (3) An appeal lodged in terms of this section does not suspend any decision of a decision-maker pending the outcome of an appeal, unless the chairperson or a deputy chairperson of the appeal board, on application by a party, directs otherwise.

[S. 26 amended by section 8 of Act 41 of 1992, section 105 of Act 88 of 1996 and section 18 of Act 12 of 2000 and substituted by s. 28 of Act 22/2008 w.e.f. 28 February 2009]

26A. Appeal board

- (1) An appeal board is hereby established.
- (2) The appeal board consists of as many members, appointed by the Minister, as the Minister considers necessary, including-
 - (a) at least two advocates or attorneys with a minimum of 10 years experience, or judges; and
 - (b) at least four persons who, in the opinion of the Minister, have experience and expert knowledge of the financial services industry.

(3) A person may not be a member of the appeal board if that person-

- (a) is not a citizen of the Republic or is not ordinarily resident in the Republic;
- (b) is an office-bearer of any political party;
- (c) is a member of Parliament or a provincial legislature or a municipal councillor;
- (d) is an unrehabilitated insolvent or becomes insolvent and the insolvency results in the sequestration of that person's estate;
- (e) is subject to an order of court holding that person to be mentally unfit or disordered;
- (f) has been removed from an office of trust;
- (g) has been convicted in the Republic or elsewhere of theft, fraud, forgery or uttering a forged document, perjury, other than an offence committed prior to 27 April 1994 associated with political objectives, an offence under the Prevention and Combating of Corrupt Activities Act, 2004 (Act No. 12 of 2004), an offence under the Prevention of Organised Crime Act, 1998 (Act No. 121 of 1998), or any other offence involving dishonesty;
- (h) has been convicted of any other offence committed after the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1993 (Act No. 200 of 1993), took effect, and sentenced to imprisonment without the option of a fine; or
- (i) has been sanctioned by any other national or international statutory regulatory body for the contravention of a law relating to the regulation and supervision of financial institutions or the rendering of financial services.

- (a) A member of the appeal board is appointed for a maximum period of three years.
- (b) The Minister may reappoint a member of the appeal board at the expiry of that member's term of office.

- (a) The appeal board must be chaired by a judge who has been discharged from active service or an advocate or attorney referred to in subsection (2)(a).
- (b) The Minister appoints the chairperson and deputy chairperson of the appeal board from the members of the appeal board.

(6) The Minister

- (a) must remove a member from office if that member no longer meets the criteria referred to in subsection (3);

- (b) may, after affording the member a reasonable opportunity to be heard, terminate the period of office of a member of the appeal board -
- (i) if the performance of the member is unsatisfactory; or
 - (ii) if the member is unable to perform the functions of office effectively.
- (7) The Minister may, if the performance of the appeal board is unsatisfactory, terminate the period of office of all the members of the appeal board.
- (8) The Minister may at any time reconstitute the appeal board, but a reconstitution does not affect the composition of a panel referred to in section 26B during the course of proceedings before that panel.
- (9) Any vacancy that occurs on the appeal board must be filled by the appointment of another person by the Minister, subject to the provisions of subsections (2) and (3), and any person so appointed holds office for a period referred to in subsection (4)(a).
- (10) A member of the appeal board who is not in the full-time employment of the State must be paid the remuneration and allowances as the Minister may from time to time determine.
- (11) Secretarial support for the appeal board must be provided by the board.
- (12) The board is responsible for the expenditure of the appeal board.

[S. 26A inserted by s. 29 of Act 22/2008 w.e.f. 28 February 2009]

26B. Panel and appeal proceedings

- (1)
- (a) The chairperson or deputy chairperson of the appeal board is responsible for managing the caseload of the appeal board and must assign each appeal to a panel constituted as set out in this section.
 - (b) Any reference in this Act or any other law to the appeal board must be construed as including a reference, where appropriate in the case of a particular appeal, to a panel to whom an appeal is or was assigned.
- (a) A panel of the appeal board consists of not less than three members of the appeal board, who are suitably qualified to decide on the particular appeal.
 - (b) Subject to paragraph (c), the chairperson or deputy chairperson appoints a chairperson that presides over a hearing of a panel and that chairperson has a casting vote in the event of an equality of votes.
 - (c) The chairperson presiding over a hearing of a panel must be an advocate, attorney or judge, as the case may be, referred to in section 26A\(2\)\(a\).

- (3) If before or during a hearing in which a member is participating, it becomes apparent that the member has an interest in a matter referred to (the appeal board the member must -
 - (a) immediately and fully disclose this interest to the other members of the panel designated to hear the matter; and
 - (b) withdraw from any further involvement in that hearing.
- (4) If, because of resignation, illness, death or withdrawal from a hearing, a member of the panel is unable to complete a hearing, the chairperson of the appeal board may-
 - (a) replace that member;
 - (b) direct that the hearing of that matter must proceed before the remaining members of the panel; or
 - (c) terminate the proceedings before that panel and constitute another panel which may include any member of the original panel and direct that panel to conduct a new hearing.
- (5) When the chairperson of a panel designated to hear an appeal deems it necessary that the panel be assisted by an assessor having expert knowledge of a particular relevant matter the panel may co-opt any such person to participate in the appeal as an assessor of the panel, without any right of participation in any decision.
- (6) An appeal is heard on the date and at the time and place determined by the chairperson of the panel.
- (7) The chairperson of a panel subject to this Act, determines the procedure for hearing an appeal.
- (8) Any party to an appeal may be represented by a legal representative.
- (9) The appeal board must conduct its hearings in public unless the chairperson of the panel which conducts the hearing rules that specific persons or groups of persons be excluded from the hearing for a reason that would be justifiable in civil proceedings before a High Court.
- (10) An appeal is decided on the written evidence, factual information and documentation submitted to the decision-maker before the decision which is the subject of the appeal, was taken.
- (11) Subject to the provisions of subsection (12) no oral or written evidence or factual information and documentation, other than what was made available to the decision-maker, may be submitted to the panel by a party to the appeal.
- (12)

- (a) Despite the provisions of subsection (11) the chairperson of a panel designated to hear an appeal may on application by-
 - (i) the appellant concerned, and on good cause shown, allow further oral and written evidence or factual information and documentation not made available to the decision-maker prior to the making of the decision against which the appeal is lodged; or
 - (ii) the decision-maker concerned and on good cause shown allow further oral and written evidence or factual information and documentation to be submitted and introduced into the record on appeal.
- (b) If further oral and written evidence or factual information and documentation is allowed into the record on appeal under paragraph (a)(i), the matter must revert to the decision-maker concerned for reconsideration and the appeal is deferred pending the final decision of the decision-maker.
- (c) If after the decision-maker concerned has made a final decision as contemplated in paragraph (b), the appellant continues with the appeal by giving written notice to the secretary the record on appeal must include the further oral evidence, properly transcribed written evidence or factual information and documentation allowed, and further reasons or documentation submitted by the decision-maker concerned.

- (a) For purposes of allowing further oral evidence in terms of subsection (12)(a) the panel may-
 - (i) summon any person to appear before it at a time and place specified in the summons, to be questioned or to produce any document and retain for examination any document so produced; and
 - (ii) administer an oath to or accept an affirmation from any person called as a witness at an appeal.
- (b) Any person summoned to provide oral evidence is entitled to legal representation at his, her or its own expense.
- (c) Any person who has been duly summoned under paragraph (a)(i) and who, without sufficient cause-
 - (i) fails to appear at the time and place specified in the summons;
 - (ii) fails to remain in attendance until excused by the board from further attendance;
 - (iii) refuses to take the oath or to make an affirmation as contemplated in paragraph (a)(ii);

(iv) fails to answer fully and satisfactorily any question lawfully put to him or her; or

(v) fails to furnish information or to produce a document specified in the summons, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine or to imprisonment not exceeding two years or to both a fine and such imprisonment.

(a) The decision of the majority of the members constituting a panel is the decision of the appeal board.

(b) The decision must be in writing and a copy must be furnished to every party to the appeal within a reasonable period.

(15) The appeal board may-

(a) confirm, set aside or vary the decision under appeal, and order that any such decision of the appeal board be given effect to; or

(b) remit the matter for reconsideration by the decision-maker concerned in accordance with such directions, if any, as the appeal board may determine.

(16) The appeal board may make such order as to costs as it may deem suitable and fair, including an order regarding the costs referred to in section 26A\(13\) and the refunding of any fees referred to in section 26\(2\) paid by the appellant.

(17) An order by the appeal board has legal force and may be enforced as if it were issued in civil proceedings in a division of the High Court within whose area of jurisdiction the appeal board held its sitting.

(18) The decision of the appeal board must be made public.

(19)

(a) The Minister may make regulations not inconsistent with this Act-

(i) regarding any matter which he or she is required or permitted to prescribe in connection with (the appeal board; and

(ii) on any matter which the Minister deems necessary or expedient to prescribe to ensure that (the objectives of this Act regarding the appeal board is achieved.

(b) Different regulations may so be made in respect of different categories of appeals or applications to the appeal board, appellants or fees.
